Sheraton is where people gather...

Share once-in-a-lifetime memories with friends and family at your Samoan celebration. At Sheraton Samoa Aggie Grey's Resort you'll experience a tropical paradise wedding, from our idyllic location on Upolu Island, to our cultural function space. Whether you dream of intimate cocktails on your own private pier overlooking the Pacific Ocean, a fairy tale dinner in our traditional Apolima Fale, or a casual gathering on the Lagoon, we'll ensure your wishes come true. Have your wedding photos taken with the beautiful back drop of Savai'i Island or the famous Samoan sunset. Nurture yourself before the big day with one or more of Manaia Polynesian Spa's beautiful body treatments, as you prepare to create memories that last a lifetime. It's your magical moment, so allow us to take care of your day, so you can savour every moment with your friends and family.

WEDDING GUIDELINES

To be married you will require:

- Copies of Birth certificate and passports
- Completed Intent to Marry Form
- Decree Absolute (Divorce) documentation if applicable
- Death Certificate of your spouse if applicable
- Documentation should be in English and clear to read

These documents must be submitted to the resort 20 days before arrival.

Many if not most of the Christian denominations are well represented in Samoa with a Celebrant or Minister to perform your special day. Catholic weddings outside of the Chapel, within the resort are possible but special permission is needed from the Cardinal's office in Apia, there will need to be correspondence from your local priest, counseling paperwork will need to be provided to the onsite priest and if previously married, Catholic weddings are not permitted.
